17:35:53 From Tom McGrath : Thank you Wes

17:37:40 From Alfonso Govela : thank you Wes

17:48:36 From Elisabeth Green : MS biomedical engineering, Duke University, won a prize at Duke U. sponsored blockchain hackathon. I code in html, Fortran and Python. I am developing a use case through Hyperledger and <https://longhack.org/> and <https://www.codeforamerica.org/national-day-of-civic-hacking> I will invite to you if you provide me with your email address. Please invite women and green-eyed redheads because they are underrepresented.

17:58:36 From Alfonso Govela : I have to leave at the hour. Apologies. Great talk guys. Happy to be here. Have a great week

17:58:49 From Wes Geisenberger : Myself as well, thank you all

17:59:45 From rgivens : This is very interesting. Thank you.
