18:47:59 From Elisabeth Green to Everyone:
how do you measure your ICT usage on a carbon footprint calculator?

18:48:33 From Tim Lipp to Everyone:
How to measure what "could have happened" is a fascinating question.

18:59:14 From Jim Whitestone to Everyone:
have to drop off. Just trying to see where technology is with regards to digital project cycle for carbon offsets to inform the work of the Task Force for Scaling Voluntary Carbon Markets. Would like them to push/resource a robust set of pilots. Will try to join future calls as well to imkprove my understanding. thanks

18:59:45 From John Carpenter to Everyone:
We have another presentation that starts at 10:00am using this Zoom link.
