SIG Proposals

Proposals in process

Name	Description	Status	Point of Contact
Manufacturing SIG	The focus of the Manufacturing SIG is on industrial digital transformation and achieving trusted interconnection among enterprises, people, equipment and objects. The group will collaborate on problems such as difficulty in guaranteeing transmission security and authenticating data rights, unreliable data, and the high cost of reliable multi-party collaboration are inevitable during the implementation process.	Proposed	Jay Guo

Archived proposals

Name	Description	Status	Staff Point of Contact
Governance, Risk, & Compliance SIG	The software industry has drastically evolved in last few decades by transforming strategies like ERP then CRM and now the focus is all on GRC, it has become one of the most crucial requirements to be added as part of digital transformation. This group will explore role of blockchain to explore GRC use cases, define standards and practices for ease of adoption by the practitioners.	Approved	Karen Ottoni
Media and Entertainment SIG	The ME-SIG will bring together technical, academic, and industry-related expertise in order to solve long-standing problems in the creation, fair distribution, and legally appropriate attribution of media assets (film, television, e-books, audiobooks, hi-res gallery or museum images, photojournalism, games, e-sports, and so forth).	Approved	David Boswell
Telecom SIG	The Hyperledger Telecom Special Interest Group is focused on technical and business-level conversations about appropriate use cases for blockchain technology in the Telecom industry.	Approved	David Boswell
Supply Chain SIG	Chain Special Interest Group (SC-SIG) will be focused on applying distributed ledger technology in general, and Hyperledger technologies in particular, to logistics & supply chain use cases and address challenges relevant to the industry by executing on a set of collaborative, community-led initiatives.	Approved	Daniela Barbosa
Capital Markets SIG	Develop a simple taxonomy of Capital Markets; first concentrating on the flow and fungibility of securities (bonds and stocks generalized to derivatives) ; issuance, trading, settlement, custody and corporate actions (payment of dividends, buy backs etc).	Approved	Karen Ottoni
Education Architecture SIG	The Education Architecture SIG will be focused on exploring how Hyperledger technologies can be used at educational institutions to bring students, faculty and administrators existing workflows and processes into the digital eco-system.	Archived	David Boswell
Climate Action & Accounting SIG	A group focused on using distributed ledgers to deliver transparency and accountability under the Paris Agreement and accelerate urgent action	Approved	David Boswell

Special Interest Group Links

- SIG Process
- SIG Proposals
- SIG Quarterly Reports