Open Discussion (Future Topics)

- The future of Indy
 - Indy Node will continue
 - Indy-SDK will be superseded by Aries libraries
 - Indy-Resolver-Aries will allow Aries to connect to Indy
- Progress on Aries, including timelines.
 - Architecture discussions are proceeding
 - Would like to lift much of indy-sdk to Aries, splitting into components, changing threading model, etc.
 - This is taking longer than expected, but is yielding useful results.
 - Moving from indy-connection protocol to aries-did-exchange protocol, hopefully in 2019
- Attributes of a DID: what is an "alternative DID"? What is the trust model?
 - Expect lots of discussion at IIW about the validity of an alternative DID
- Expectations for the future of this Identity Implementors call
 - Can we remove the meeting and call updates from the Indy and Aries calls?
 - We should reduce the scope of meeting updates in the other calls, but there still might be some useful updates specific to those calls.
 - Plans for next call (October 10)
 - Some will be at the Maintainers Summit, but we'll hold the call anyway.

Next Meeting Topics

- Review of IIW
- Encourage people to share their IIW demo (Evernym and Sovrin Foundation)

Future Topics

- Kiva demo (Cam)
- Roadmap coordination between Indy, Aries and Ursa
