Antitrust Policy Notice

Linux Foundation meetings involve participation by industry competitors, and it is the intention of the Linux Foundation to conduct all of its activities in accordance with applicable antitrust and competition laws. It is therefore extremely important that attendees adhere to meeting agendas, and be aware of, and not participate in, any activities that are prohibited under applicable US state, federal or foreign antitrust and competition laws.

Examples of types of actions that are prohibited at Linux Foundation meetings and in connection with Linux Foundation activities are described in the Linux Foundation Antitrust Policy available at <http://www.linuxfoundation.org/antitrust-policy>. If you have questions about these matters, please contact your company counsel, or if you are a member of the Linux Foundation, feel free to contact Andrew Updegrave of the firm of Gesmer Updegrave LLP, which provides legal counsel to the Linux Foundation.

Shashank Rai, CTO, United Nations International Computing Centre

Shashank is the Chief Technology Officer of UN ICC and heads the Solution Architecture Section. With over 21 years of experience in diverse industry verticals from telecoms, Air Transport, Financial and Energy sectors, working in start-ups to Fortune-500 companies; Shashank has been with the UN ICC for last 4 years.

He started his career in hands-on security penetration testing, “smashing the stack for fun and profit”. Over the years he has lived in various part of world – Middle East, Canada, UK and now working for the UN, in Switzerland.

Beyond the buzzwords, his strength is to apply deep technical knowledge to transform business activities.

As George Bernard Shaw puts it “Happy is the man who can make a living by his hobby” – apart from his hobby of tinkering with technology, Shashank also loves trekking.
